

Amanda Hjorring

Square Peg Capital

Chief Operating Officer

Amanda joined Square Peg in 2015 as its Chief Operating Officer. She has worked in the finance and funds industry for 20 years and has held a variety of senior management positions. Most recently, Amanda was a principal of Taemas Group, a principal investor in private equity with a turnaround and opportunistic focus. Amanda was on the deal origination and execution team and was also responsible for the financials and tax structuring for the group. Prior to Taemas, Amanda spent 7 years at Babcock and Brown heading the investment management team and then financing and developing structured property products. Amanda holds Bachelors of Commerce and Laws from the University of Auckland.