

Kristin Vaughan

Clean Energy Finance Corporate

Director of the Clean Energy Innovation Fund

Kristin Vaughan is Director of the Clean Energy Innovation Fund at the Clean Energy Finance Corporation. Kristin is responsible for originating and managing investments in early stage clean energy companies. Prior to joining the CEFC, Kristin was an Investment Director at leading private equity firm CHAMP Ventures, where she managed investments across a range of industries including education, manufacturing, logistics, services and retail. Kristin has a chemical engineering degree from the University of Sydney.